Jesus knew many of
the religious leaders
loved money more
than they loved God.

He told what happened to two people, and why it is useless to have riches without God. Riches cannot buy life with God in Heaven.

There was a certain rich man who had beautiful clothes which cost lots of money. He dressed like a king.

The rich man also ate very well.
Every meal was like a great feast.
He had so much money he could buy anything he wanted to
eat for breakfast,
lunch, supper - or
for in-
between snacks.

At the gate of the rich man's house
there lay a poor, sick, starving
beggar. His name

was Lazarus.

Poor Lazarus was full of sores. He may have had a disease. He may have had cuts and bruises from others being mean to him.

Maybe he had sores
because he did not
have good food like
milk, vegetables
or meat.

Lazarus longed for food. He would have been happy with the crumbs from the rich man's table.

Stray dogs
sometimes
padded
over to the poor
helpless
beggar.

They sniffed around him and licked his wounds. It seems nobody cared that Lazarus was starving.

One
morning,
Lazarus
did not
wake up.

The poor
starving,
friendless
beggar
had left
this life.
Lazarus
was dead.

Joy began for Lazarus the moment he died. Jesus said angels carried him to be with Abraham. Lazarus was comforted by God.

The rich man also died. All his money could not save his life. When death came, nobody could stop it.

The rich man was buried. Perhaps it was a large funeral. Perhaps people praised the rich man for being clever and successful.

But their praises did not help him.
The rich man was in Hell.

In Hell, the rich man cried, "Father Abraham, send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

"In life you had everything and Lazarus had nothing," Abraham reminded the rich man.

"Now Lazarus is comforted and you are tormented. No one can cross the great gulf between you and us."

"Send Lazarus to warn my five brothers," the rich man pleaded. "I don't want them to end up in this place of torment."

"I don't want them to end up in this place of torment."

"Your brothers
have God's Word," Abraham
replied.

If the five brothers
would not believe the Bible, they would not

believe if Lazarus
came back
from the
dead.

When Jesus finished the story of the rich man and Lazarus, perhaps the religious leaders asked themselves, "Do I love riches more than I love God?"

Now they knew what would happen if they did not heed God's Word.

Rich Man, Poor Man

A story from God's Word, the Bible,

is found in

Luke 16

"The entrance of Your Words gives light."

Psalm 119:130

The End

This Bible story tells us about our wonderful God who made us and who wants us to know Him.

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The punishment for sin is death, but God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and be punished for our sins. Then Jesus came back to life and went home to Heaven! If you believe in Jesus and ask Him to forgive your sins, He will do it! He will come and live in you now, and you will live with Him forever.

If you want to turn from your sins,
say this to God:

Dear God, I believe that Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so that I can have new life now, and one day go to be with You forever. Help me to live for You as Your child. Amen.

Read the Bible and talk with God every day! John 3:16
